Passenger Trains Collide at Dalemead

Strathmore Council Hold Regular Meeting

Early Wednesday morning C.P.R. trains No. 1 and 2 met in a head-on collision near Dalemead, resulting in the death of Engineer Fay and Fireman Winfield, both of Calgary. Two passengers were also injured, but it is thought but slightly.

Engineer Fay had a wife and two children, while Fireman Winfield is survived by a wife and seven children.

The cause of the accident has not yet been determined. The train met with a crash, which aroused the residents of the town of Dalemead. Fortunately none of the passenger coaches were derailed, and the splendid steel cars of the company prevented them telescoping. The collision made a bad mess of the locomotives. Wrecking crews and nurses were sent forward from both Calgary and Medicine Hat, but fortunately neither the passengers nor other train men were injured.

VANCOUVER MAN KILLED NEAR STRATHMORE

On Friday morning, W. M. Jamieson, of Vancouver, was found seriously injured on the roadside west of town. Assistance was secured, and Dr. Giffen had him transferred to St. Thomas's Hospital, where he expired three days afterwards.

Just how the accident happened will probably never be explained. Mr. Jamieson, a friend of his, claimed he was rather a nervous driver. He was travelling alone when the car overturned in the ditch.

He had driven in the day previously to Calgary from Arrowwood, bringing with him his son, who returned on the train to Vancouver on Friday night.

Deceased was a married man, and is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter.

The remains were shipped to Vancouver by Mr. C. W. Chase.

BRITISH EDITORS STRATHMORE VISITORS LAST THURSDAY

The newspaper editors from Great Britain, who have been travelling through Canada by special train, stopped in Strathmore for a couple of days on Thursday night.

A couple of them missed the train at Calgary, but made connection by taxi driven by a local boy, Harold Tucker, formerly on the staff of the Standard.

The party apparently were much interested in the big plant of the C.P.R. at the Supply Farm, and Geo. H. Jones, their assistants, introduced the editors to several of the "fair daisies" of the Holstein variety, which have made reputations for themselves and Strathmore throughout Canada, as being members of the largest herd in the Dominion.

Several of the publishers were impressed with the plant and operations at the cranberry where they discovered that the quality of the dairy products which they had been receiving on the dining car service, had been produced.

One fellow from Devonshire proclaimed it "almost equal to Devonshire, and that's some admission."

They were particularly interested in the general information about "Canadian Farming" that was given to them, and expressed regret that they would not be able to avail themselves of an opportunity of seeing the combine harvester at work upon the farm of Sven Swenson, of whom they had heard that he had made a wonderful success.

They fully expressed their satisfaction at the general outlook throughout Canada, and one member of the party remarked that the "only line in the business" was the query that they would have to face upon returning to the "Old Land" why the young Canadians had to leave Canada if the opportunities are so good here for the young Brits.

The unemployment question had not been satisfactorily explained to them. In every other respect Canada appeared to them as a great country with immense natural resources and a wonderful future.

The hospitality of the Canadians received throughout the trip was simply beyond expression.

The community quit to the secretary, Dalmead High School and Carlsland Consolidated are in luck in having two lady teachers this term of the same name of Beattie.

Miss McKenzie left Sunday, and will proceed to Lunenburg where she has accepted a position as teacher.

Mrs. Alexander and daughters have returned to their home in Victoria after spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Marshall.

School opened on Tuesday, the 6th, Miss Grace Scholtz taking the senior room, and Miss Audrey Catherine the primary.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, of Staveley, spent Sunday with Mr. J. P. Laurie.

Miss May Watts was a visitor to Calgary during the week.

A regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday night, Mayor Shrimpton presiding, with Councillors Scholtz, Sanders, Shrimpton and Bailey present.

Secretary-Treasurer T. M. Wears was the minutes of the previous meeting, which were confirmed.

Mr. Wears reported progress and action in regard to minimum school tax collection.

Mayor Shrimpton presented an objection from a ratepayer, who was assessed the minimum school tax, while the home property was assessed in his wife's name. It was pointed out that the Act does not leave any option, and the tax must be collected.

The Mayor, the Minister of Public Works and Councillor Scholtz were appointed a committee to look over the necessary road work to be completed this Fall, with power to act. They will give special attention to the road running south near the town limits, Railway avenue, and the Strathmore Hotel corner.

E. W. R. Lambert had requested the Mayor to ask if the earth on the back of his lot could be used for street work, and that he would pay a portion of the cost of removal.

The Councillors were agreed that it should be used satisfactorily at a later date.

A letter of thanks was received from Rev. W. H. H. for the use of the park for their recent entertainment.

A request for a street light at the corner of Stockton Road and Third Street from A. S. Hyde, was recommended.

Complaints were received regarding horses running at large and dogs that have been a nuisance, and the secretary was instructed to write to the owners of the dogs and inform them that action will be taken if the grievance is allowed to continue.

A number of current accounts were referred to the Finance Committee for payment.

The matter of naming that portion of the street between sections 11 and 14, township 24, range 25, was brought before the council by Councillor Scholtz, and after much discussion, it was decided to name it "Stockton Road".

The Council members being in a very receptive mood, the giving of a name to Strathmore's beautiful park was discussed, and they were quite unanimous that such would be a good act, and furthermore it presented an opportunity of doing an hour to one of Strathmore's early citizens, Strathmore's first mayor, Mr. E. W. R. Lambert, one who gave freely and willingly of his time and ability in the interest of the Town. A resolution was accordingly passed naming it Lambert Park.

The matter of parking cars in town was brought up by Mayor Shrimpton, who referred to one man last Saturday night, whose car was blocked for an hour and a half.

Mr. Wears was requested to prepare a bylaw governing the parking of cars in general, and also to take action with reckless driving of automobiles, to be presented at the next meeting of the Council.

The Provincial Highway west of the town came within an eye of being named last night; the members not being quite unanimous whether to call it Bailey Road, Bailey Street, or Bailey Esplanade. In the meantime the Council and Public in connection with the matter his serious consideration. Councillor Minnie's permit being shown up, the Council was duly adjourned in order to protect the popular Harry.

Carlsland and vicinity is the scene of a very busy harvesting. The crop being very heavy the cry is for more hired help. The town will be a lively hub well into the winter months during threshing operations.

The winter evenings of Henry Dick will be an enjoyable character since the three Misses have taken up their residence at his home.

John D. Craig, Director-General of Surveyors for the Canadian Government, who has come to Vancouver to study the problems of the international boundary between Canada, the United States, and Alaska.

Harvest in full swing. The end of this week will find almost every farmer busy cutting, and soon the song of the thresher will be heard.

No serious frost damage has been reported, and it is expected that an excellent grade of wheat will be threshed, and that, with a satisfactory price, will make the dollars jiggle throughout the Bow Valley.

Business prospects have not been brighter for many seasons, and the majority of the farmers are wearing a smile that won't come off.

WHEAT POOL NEWS

The E. P. Ranch, owned by H.R.H., the Prince of Wales, has agreed to a Wheat Pool contract. The ranch contains a section of land, and is located near High River, Alberta. The Prince was a recent visitor at the ranch, and while there instructed W. J. Carthy, his ranch manager, to have the acreage placed under a Pool contract.

The Alberta Wheat Pool is not operating a course grain pool this year. Blank course grain contracts have been sent out, and if a sufficient acreage is signed a course grain pool will be operated next year.

By the time the bulk of the wheat is moving in Alberta this fall, the Alberta Wheat Pool will have 125 elevators completed and in operation.

Yukaki Shihari, of the Japanese firm of Mitsubishi Shoji Kaisha Ltd., importers and exporters, of Seattle, Wash., was a visitor at the Alberta Wheat Pool office this morning. He entered a great deal of interest in the organization.

The first sample of this year's wheat to reach the Alberta Pool office was from the crop of C. Lindsay, of Bromet. This wheat is an excellent No. 1 Northerner, and weighed 65 pounds to the bushel. Mr. Lindsay has 40 acres of wheat which has been cut, but has yet to be threshed. The sample was hand-threshed. Mr. Lindsay is a member of the Alberta Wheat Pool.

A HIGHER GASOLINE TAX

KINGSTON—The White-Standard suggests increasing the tax on gasoline in order to get better roads.

"Coming events cast their shadows before," if, then, this applies to Provincial legislation it is reasonably certain that before many months we shall have a higher tax on gasoline in Ontario and a lower license fee, because we take it for granted that when Premier Ferguson in his Parliam speech on Wednesday set out his personal views on these two subjects he in fact "anticipated" the views of the Government which he leads and in which he is the dominating personality. Hence we presume that he will so impress his views upon the Cabinet that they will become "Cabinet Views" and will subsequently be moulded into a Government measure.

As all motorists know we already have a three cent tax on gasoline in Ontario which brings the price of this now much-needed commodity up to a pretty stiff figure as compared with American prices even in those States which have a four and five cent tax per gallon. Despite this, however, we anticipate little protest against a further tax increase here—provided it be not too great—in view of the fact that it is certain that the money thus to be raised will go to further road improvements, for which every motorist prays.

It is to be borne in mind in this connection that our Ontario roads are today being extensively used by visiting motorists who have already paid their motor license fees in their own states. Hence it is only fair that for the privilege of this use, and paying no license fee here, they should not wholly escape taxation, even though it be in the form of a higher gasoline price. Canadians travelling in the United States are obliged on their part to pay "a part of the shot" in the way of a gasoline tax, as would seem to be only right in view of the fact that they pay no motor license fee in any state, their Ontario license being everywhere recognized. Hence undoubtably the idea of Premier Ferguson's of reducing the license fee while at the same time increasing the gasoline tax. The license reductions will be an immediate and direct benefit to Ontario motorists and to none other, while the gasoline tax will fall on all visitors and residents alike, and the greater the use of the road, which means the greater the gas consumption, the more the tax, which again seems reasonable.

We believe that not only Ontario motorists, hoping for additional road

NEW "GAS" TAX
TO RAISE $123,000,000

SAN FRANCISCO—California has launched upon the greatest road development program in its history, which it will require 12 years to complete. Two measures adopted by the last session of the State Legislature, which recently went into effect, will be financed in large measure by approximately $123,000,000, which it is expected will raise during that period. The gasoline tax in California is now 3 cents a gallon.

The present program, which meets practically the unanimous approval of all sections of the State, was sponsored jointly by the California State Automobile Association and the Automobile Club of Southern California. Within reasonable limits the program is expected to provide for the motorist needs of the State for the next decade.

Some of the results which the program aims to achieve follow: Three paved highway connections with Oregon; the building of eight connecting links with Nevada, at least two of which will be paved to a high standard; the paving of three main highways to the Arizona line; the complete improvement, both north and south and east and west across California, at every transcontinental or interstate highway reaching its borders; the paving of two main trunk line highways the full length of the State; the connecting up by a paved highway of all the 18 county seats in these main trunk lines, and the improvement of 12 distinct trans-state highways that will afford ample facility in traveling from the Coast Line Highway to the Valley Highway.

ARE AIRPLANE WEDDINGS LEGAL

The discussion raised regarding the recent double wedding in an airplane cruising over Berlin by one of the churches may lead to the prohibition of not only religious, but also civil marriage ceremonies in the air. It was learned today that the president of the province of Brandenburg, has taken the matter up and asked an opinion from the authorities at the capital.

It is held that performing a marriage ceremony in a plane is difficult on account of the roar of the motors. Another objection is that the records which are kept by the officials should not be endangered by taking them into the air.

While the legality of a marriage ceremony performed between heaven and earth is not questioned, the opponents of such weddings hold that they are simply sensational and should not be encouraged.

So far so civil marriages have been performed in a plane or airship as far as Germany is concerned. Civil officials always tied the knots in their offices before the bride couple ascended to have their unions blessed by clergymen in the clouds.

The case of the Rev. A. P. Teichmann, who was suspended from his pastorate for performing a double ceremony in a plane equipped with an altar has not been considered by the higher church authorities to whom the minister appealed.

Improvement, but all our visitors—and they are as welcome as flowers in May—will graciously bow to a higher gasoline tax if it be finally decided to establish one.

THE WITCHERY OF THE WEST

The great smoking chimneys of the east have their significance, but one must get out on the prairies to have a proper conception of what Canada is—what the progress has been, and what the future promises. Little more than forty years ago Winnipeg was Fort Garry and Manitoba was Rupert's Land whose broad acres were known principally to the savage, the Hudson Bay factor and the voyager.

Today Winnipeg is an important city that will soon have a population of 300,000. Forty years ago Manitoba's first wheat crop was harvested, comprising sixteen carloads. This year the combined value of Manitoba's field crop will be well over $20,000,000, and keeping pace with agriculture has been the development of industry and the production of minerals to the value of nearly $5,000,000. No Canadian can view the broad prairies of Saskatchewan and Alberta, without experiencing a thrill of pride at the thought that "this is my country."

There is witchery and inspiration in those stupendous fields of gold that stretch on every side as far as the eye can see, there is magic in the almost unbelievable development of the western plains and cities. Twenty-five years ago Edmonton had a total population of two thousand, made up altogether of cowboys, Indians and trappers; today Edmonton has a population close to 70,000 and the wheat yield alone will total close to 175,000,000 bushels—a development over a term no more than twenty-five years. And what is true of Edmonton is equally true of Calgary. In 1905 Saskatchewan was still part of the Northwest Territories. Today it is a kingdom in itself with an area twice as large as the United Kingdom and from acre the field crops of the province have steadily increased until this year they will total easily $400,000,000. These figures are no easy to comprehend, one must go out there to look at these wonders and to really appreciate them and to understand something of Canada's destiny. Canada is today great in the wealth of her soil, her minerals, her forests, her immense distances; who can gauge the future with millions of acres of splendid land yet untouched, with fabulous treasures of mineral yet uncovered, with countless waterways awaiting development and with the nomadic herds of the world manifesting their faith and interest in the future of Canada by the expenditure of billions of dollars in development of every kind.

SANCTUARY SET ASIDE FOR MUSKOX PROTECTION

OTTAWA—Canada has just taken an important step in the work of conserving the muskox by establishing a sanctuary in the valleys of the Hanbury and Thelon rivers east of Great Slave lake in the Northwest Territories.

Why should Canada care for the muskox? Because it is one of the most wonderful and most potentially useful of all our big game animals. Canada's effort to save it is not actuated by sentimentality but by business prudence. The Dominion Government must care for the big game for the sake of the Indians and Eskimo inhabitants, both for humanitarian motives and as a means of maintaining a vigorous native population, without which the development of the various resources of the north would be impossible. The Northland has important big game animals other than the muskox but the characteristics of the latter are such as to make it exceedingly valuable. It is a big, strong animal, exceptionally free from disease, which can defend itself against all enemies except men armed with high-powered rifles; its flesh, and pelt are excellent and its quiet habits are grounds for the belief that it can readily be domesticated. The massive body, intense vitality, and thick coat of woolly fur give the muskox complete protection against the storm and cold of the Arctic winter as well as the heat and insects of the Arctic summer, and these qualities, together with its habit of pawing away the snow and getting at the herbage beneath, render unnecessary the usual annual migrations which lay open other big game animals to the attacks of their enemies. In a word the Arctic is the place where the muskox has thrived for hundreds of years and where it will continue to thrive if given protection from new enemies. It is thus peculiarly the big game animal of the Canadian Arctic.

S. G. Porter, of Lethbridge, has been appointed manager of Canadian Pacific Railway Natural Resources. Mr. Nait will continue to act as chairman of the advisory committee.

The trustees of Inland High School have decided to reestablish a grade twelve in the Inland High School and will open the class immediately. Grade twelve students should at once get in touch with Principal Couler and make arrangements to start at once.

"1927-28 is going to be a cold winter," says Bill Thierper.
 "Who told you that—an Indian?" asked Percy Pariah.
 "No, a departmental store manager. He tells me women are buying in a greater stock of sheer chiffon hose than ever before," answered Uncle Bill.

W. G. Hunt, of Calgary, secretary of the Alberta Medical Association, proposes to have the medical men put on a "cash and carry" proposition, since the medical men are the only ones who give a 24-hour service. It is quite evident that Mr. Hunt does not know what he is talking about, or that he does not know "Zim" Moran and "Mickey" Torrance having been doing that same thing for years.

"Don" McLean was in town last week renewing acquaintances after having a rest in Okotoks. While at the attraction for "Don" to make weekly trips to Strathmore no longer is located here, he still has a soft spot in his heart for the old town, and his many friends are always glad to get one of his winning smiles.

The household effects of Mr. McDonald, of Carman, Manitoba, the new accountant at the Supply Farm, have arrived. Mr. McDonald will occupy the residence on Third Street, lately occupied by Mr. E. W. R. Lambert.

There has been some misunderstanding about the date of the Strathmore School Fair. Don't make any mistake, the date is Friday, September 16, and President "Ted" Schulte and Secretary S. H. Crowther have things moving to make it the best ever held in Strathmore, and of course that means the best in the province, which carries with the title the best in Canada.

Joe F. Price, of the Alberta Nash Ltd., was in town on Saturday, completing final arrangements with J. A. Daman for the local agency. "Joe" wandered around by accident to the Standard office, as he is an oldtime journalist having been sporting editor on the Calgary Albertan in the good old days, when wages were secondary to having a steady job. Joe is a famous football coach, who has been very successful in Junior rugby circles. He was too busy telling about the assets of the Nash car to give any news about rugby, so will have to wait until his next visit.

Golfers beware! For the same, according to accident insurance companies, comes third among "dangerous sport." Victims of 451 golf accidents collected insurance last year, twelve for cuts with sharp instruments being on the list. The instruments were bottles on the "19th hole." However, for one man injured in golf, one hundred die for lack of exercise, and Jim Gunn says that he and "Pat" are not worrying anything about the 19th hole.

Rev. Wilkinson preached a very able sermon Sunday evening on the Dignity of Labor, saying in part that the one who ploughs a furrow reaps the grain, the merchant who weighs his goods, the man who edits his paper, the teacher who teaches his class, the woman who conducts her household, the doctor and nurse in the hospital, are each and all doing the work of God equally with the preacher in the pulpit, provided it is done in the proper spirit and to the very best of his ability.

Mr. and Mrs. D. French motored through the Yoho Valley during the holiday week end.

Miss Watson returned Monday evening from her vacation spent near Edmonton.

The holidays now over teachers and pupils are settling down to the serious, but interesting work of the year's study.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bray motored to Banff for the holiday.

Jim Moran and Alex Gray spent Labor Day fishing on the Bow River at Crossland, and "Zim" claims he caught the largest Rainbow trout that was ever taken out of the river at that point, measuring thirteen and a half inches, in fact he claims it is the largest he ever saw, with one exception, and that was the one he captured while travelling many years ago with the "Australian Woodchoppers", and that one measured half an inch more. Alex Gray says it surely was a dandy.

Percy Pariah decided on Saturday that he needed a day's rest, so after giving Corporal Bill Wilkinson his instructions how to carry on for the day, he wandered up to Calgary where he enjoyed himself for the day. Bill says he never was missed from the bloomers' work.

On Thursday, September 28th, Bishop R. L. Sherman, of Calgary, will conduct Rev. Mr. Winter as rector of St. Michaels and All Angels Church.

Labor Day, a number of men of St. Michaels and All Angels Church, spent part of the day painting the rectory, during which a small ladder accident caused a few minor bruises to Mr. E. Hildy and Mr. Joe French, but each of them were able to "carry on" on Tuesday morning.

The Town of Strathmore is holding a sale of land for taxes on September 17th. Particulars of which are being advertised in this issue.

Frank Miller, of the Royal Crown Hotel, Corralton, was a Labor Day visitor.

Constable Tate is kept going at a lively pace covering regularly the Town of Standard and district, in which town he will alternate with Constable Valk, of Glenora.

The annual meeting of the Alberta Golf Association will be held next year at Edmonton. J. W. Woods, of Calgary, is the new president.

Mr. T. Gatenby, in speaking about the car of fruit which is expected to arrive in Strathmore from British Columbia on Thursday morning, stated that he was particularly pleased to secure such a fine lot of fruit. The growers advise that the quality is of the best, and that the season is going to be a very short one, hence, every good housewife should avail themselves of the opportunity of securing the fruit for next winter's use.

On Labor Day the Strathmore and

C.P.R. Tennis Clubs united and played the Natural Resources Club, of Calgary. The games were exceedingly interesting and the visitors were entertained by the local members.

A big dance will be held on Friday, September 16th, in the Memorial Hall. The proceeds will be used to make up the last payment on the mortgage on the Memorial Hall, and everyone assisting will be much appreciated by the members of the Legion, who have worked so persistently to reach this objective.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Bruce, of Calgary are leaving shortly for Korea, where Mr. Bruce will engage in educational work. He was vice-principal of Connaught School.

"Bud" Davies, of Vancouver, is in Calgary, and may secure a match with Young Cowie, who fought Tommy Rogers straightup fight, and almost sent Tommie "cuckoo" when he landed one of his haymakers. Goodnight "Buddie" if they meet.

Mrs. H. J. Anderson has returned from Manitoba, where she has been spending a vacation. Harry J. is now looking forward to once more getting a good square meal.

Children under sixteen years are prohibited from attending public and high schools, Sunday schools, swimming pools, and movie shows in Edmonton, owing to an epidemic of infantile paralysis.

"Bob" Anderson, who is removing to Ontario, will hold an auction sale of the household effects on September 17th, when A. Layzell, the popular auctioneer, will be in attendance, and on the block in all his glory.

Sergeant J. E. F. Wright, a brother of Sgt. Bob Wright, of the Provincial Police, has been placed in charge of a new post establishment at Calgary, on the south coast of Baffin Island.

Jack Allen expects to have the new machinery installed in the new building at Basara within a few days. The work on the building has been rushed, and when completed Strathmore will be given a better service than before the fire.

Next week will be an important one for the ladies of Strathmore, when the representative will be here with a complete line of ladies suits, coats, and dresses, when possibly the largest showing of high-class goods will be subject to the scrutiny of the ladies, and you may say, said Mr. Gatenby, that they will not be disappointed. They are certainly showing a magnificent line of goods, and at prices that will appeal. Everybody is invited to see this beautiful display.

Major Goodsell, the Australian sculling champion easily defeated Bert Barry, England's hope, at Vancouver on Labor Day, by over ten lengths, having perspired, while Barry was all out of breath, and had to fear for some time, until Joe Wright Jr., the Canadian amateur oarsman decides to turn professional.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson have returned from a trip to Banff, Lake Louise, and Johnston Canyon. They had quite an experience with the bad roads. "Bob" helped to extricate a motorist and his family who had driven over an embankment and dropped fifteen feet. The passengers and car were miraculously unharmed.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bates will extend their sympathy to them in the death of their six-year-old son, "Buddie", who A. Layzell, the popular auctioneer, will be in attendance, and on the block in all his glory.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fraser, of Claresholm, were Strathmore visitors this week.

ARNPRIOR—Jack Sharkey, the heavyweight pugilist who was recently knocked out by Jack Dempsey, but who, according to pictures shown here this week was almost as good as Dempsey, was a visitor in Arnprior recently.

He is a young man of splendid physique, fair-haired and of pleasing personality. They had been fishing in the Madawaska, where Bill Tierney, of Strathmore, used to wander as a barefooted lad and with an improvised fish hook made from a pin, he used to bring home enough fish to keep all the Tierneys supplied, and they all were very fond of fish.

"QUEEN OF THE HOBOs" MADE AN EFFORT

OTTAWA—To get a glimpse of Ottawa's "Princess Charm," one little American girl travelled all the way from New York to Ottawa, partly on foot and partly through "hitch rides" from tourists on the road. She calls herself Betty Simpson and hales from Brownsville, Texas. Part Irish and part Indian, she is known throughout the continent as "Hobo Betty" or "Queen of the Hobos," and makes gliding through her profession. She arrived in Montreal just too late to see the price but hastened on to Ottawa, begging rides along the way. Yesterday she stood amid the great crowds which lined the streets, but the police line was so strict that the train to reach her destination.

Her life has been a succession of adventures. She is but 24 years of age, yet she has travelled from New York to Hamilton as a stowaway. She has been transferred from ship to ship in mid-ocean and jumped from trains to reach her destination.

Usually she dresses in trousers and a soft masculine shirt and cap. She has acquired a peculiar philosophy; she does not need to work, she says she can "beat her way."

One of her biggest disappointments was her failure to meet the Prince yesterday.

HEARD ON THE STREET

Postmaster Martin is now in a position to supply thirteen 2c postage stamps, of the pre-confederation variety, for the price of a cent and a quarter.

King Kelly, the jester, says he notes that a noted lecturer announces his retirement from the platform due to his recent marriage. Possibly he will now pose as the audience, as he lobbies off with another ala congealed McCallister Lake water.

A young fellow who had just hired out to an Edmonton butcher for $10 a week was asked if he could dress a chicken. "Not on ten bucks a week," was his come back. It is to be hoped that this is not "Stubby" Gardner.

Calgary Customer: "Are you quite sure this suit won't shrink if it gets wet on me?"
"My friend, every fine company in the city has squatted water on dot suit."

Wife: "I want to do some shopping today, if the weather is nice. What are the probabilities?"
Husband (consulting paper): "Rain, hurricane, tornado, thunder and lightning."

The burglar's wife was in the witness box and prosecuting attorney was conducting a vigorous cross-examination:
"Madam, you are the wife of this man."
"Yes."
"You knew he was a burglar when you married him?"
"Yes."
"How did you come to contract a matrimonial alliance with such a man?"

"Well," said the witness sarcastically, "I was getting old and had to choose between a lawyer and a burglar."

The cross-examination ended there.
"I don't suppose you keep anything so civilized as dog biscuit in this town, do you," the tourist snarled.
"Oh, yes, stranger," the merchant responded pleasantly. "Quite a few folks like you come through from the city and we aim to have everything called for. Have you in a bag or can you here?"

Little Johnny, a city boy in the country for the first time, saw the milking of a cow.
"Now you know where the milk comes from, don't you?" asked John Davis, of Ardenale.
"Sure!" replied Johnny. "You give her some breakfast food and water and then drain her crankcase."

"Ternery," said his friend Percy Parish, "how do you tell how old a chicken is?"
"I can always tell by the teeth," said Ternery.
"By the teeth?" exclaimed Percy.
"You poor prude, a chicken has no teeth."
"No," admitted Ternery, "but I have."

Did a Big Business—A real estate man who was always coming home with tall stories of sales running into thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars, was accented one evening by his son, and he, who announced:

"Well, dad, I've sold the dog."
"You've sold the dog?"
"Yep."
"What for?"
"For $10,000."

"Ten thousand dollars. What are you talking about? Where's the money?"
"I didn't get money, Dad. I got two $5,000 cats for it."

"I decided today that we would make our own butter," said the bride.
"Oh, have you?" asked her husband.
"Yes, I bought a churn from the Strathmore Hardware, and ordered butter milk from Homer Nelson, so he left here regularly. Won't be nice to have really fresh butter?"

The city kid was roaming about in the country when he came upon a dozen or so empty condensed milk cans. Greatly excited, he yelled to his companion, "Hog, fellow, come here, quick! I've found a cow's nest!"

She: "Before you married me you told me you were well off."

Customer: "You're cuttier me to bits. I can't stand this any longer. Where is the head barber?"

Barber: "He has gone out to get a shave."

Marshall Kimpton says anyone might know that golf is a Scotch game when you learn that the idea is to "have strokes."

Mr. Blank, to his wife: "You never tell me anything. Your life is a closed book to me."
Wife: "Well, my dear, you're no home-leak lodge yourself."

Bride: "He's awful, mother! He doesn't believe in bridge, dancing, or any amusement."

Mother: "But you must remember, dear, you took him for better or worse."
"Yes, but it would be so much better if he were worse!"

Tramp (to housewife): "Lady, would you be-kind enough to give me the recipe for the plum cake you handed me this morning?"
Accommodated Housewife: "For goodness sake, what do you want the recipe for?"

Tramp: "To settle a bet, lady. My partner says you use three cups of cement to one of sugar, and I claim you only use two and a half."

"My love," said the salesman, as he handed Jim Swanson a sample Flor de Toofus. "That's something like a cigar!"

"So it is," responded Jim after he had taken a puff or two; "what is it?"

Gladys Bell had had a good many beaux but none of 'em hadn't never seemed to suit her father. But last spring a young fellow named Harold Smith started going with her. He has a good job at Coronation, and so her father has been kind of urging him on Gladys, which is about the poorest way they is of trying to make a match. He was asking yesterday, to Gladys, a spry Stubby an' saying what a fine husband he'd make. Gladys listened for a while an' then she says, "Aw, I know it paw," says she. "But I don't like the way he comes his hair," she says.

Gene and the dear girl were saying good night on the doorstep when a wind above them was pushed suddenly open and a weary voice said, "My dear, I have no objection to your coming here and sitting up half the night, nor even standing on the doorstep all night good for two hours, but out of consideration for the rest of the household who wish to go to sleep, will you kindly take your elbow off the bell-hug!"

Aggie: "Give me a half hour and a needle and I let I'll land him."
Appie: "When is a right place, get into something loose."

"Is his wife going with him on that nice trip?" the woman of the house inquired, according to Bill Tierney.
"No," replied her husband, the brute, "He's going for a complete rest."

A third Calgary business man had been made unusually so by sitting through the entire performance of the theatre without a smoke. Waiting in the lobby, while his wife put on her hat and powdered her nose, entirely ruined what he had left of his disposition. Stopping a fair usher, he demanded in a hard-boiled tone: "Where the hell is the men's smoking room?"

"Go right down this hall," she replied sweetly, "and turn to your right. You will see a sign that says 'Gentlemen'. Pay no attention to the sign. Go right in."

TREAT CANADIAN BOYS EQUALLY
WITH BRITISHERS

NO
COMPULSION

The Dominion Government has announced a plan to cooperate with the British Government to advance education to assist British youths to purchase farms in Canada.

The scheme is an excellent one, no cases of settlers being more welcome than the young Britishers, especially those who have had an agricultural training and have been retrained in rural districts.

The Dominion Government might quite well make a further step and advance an adequate amount to Canadian boys who wish to take up agriculture, but who are without means to do so.

The cost of securing land and equipment to successfully farm is considerable and without a proper equipment the young farmer is almost destined to failure before he begins, and in any event is sure to work under a handicap that none but the most persistent would overcome.

Each year lists large numbers of eminent promising young Canadians crossing the Atlantic border looking for the big cities where employment is procurable at good wages, who would be glad to remain in Canada and follow agriculture if they could get started upon a basis that would give them an anticipative making a success.

Thousands of dollars are being expended by the Dominion Government each year to secure immigrants to take the place of the Canadians who have emigrated across the American border.

Would it not be a good investment to invest a part of these thousands in keeping the Canadian boys at home by treating them equally as liberal as the authorities are prepared to give young Britishers.

CLOSER COHESION BETWEEN TOWN AND COUNTRY

A short time ago a banquet was given to Dr. Collison, of Red Deer, upon his removing after a twenty year residence in the district. He stated there he had two thoughts that he desired to leave with them:

The first was that of organized intelligence. Sir Ernest Benn had said that the causes of American prosperity were five per cent natural resources and 95 per cent active organized intelligence. Prosperity did not just happen. There had always been a large number of cultured people here — he had heard that before, as came, twenty-five years ago — but we had not organized our intelligence; we had lived our lives happily and had not consciously been building up the district. We should follow the example of our neighbors to the south.

The other thought was that of closer cohesion between the farmers and the townspeople. We had not worked together as we could have. It should be possible for the farmers and the townspeople to form a bonnie entente and to stand shoulder to shoulder to build up the district. The Board of Trade had done something along these lines but he thought another organization of town and country people was necessary to build up and advertise the district.

Surely, there is thought for the public and business men of Strathmore and the surrounding districts in the words of Dr. Collison. There is a gap existing here, and it certainly is not to the benefit of Strathmore business and Strathmore will not develop as it should until these conditions are changed.

THE BUSY MAN

Modern business has engendered several axioms which rival the rarest of wisdom of the ancients. Among the most frequently quoted is, "If you want something done take it to a busy man." A companion epigram reads, "A good workman never waits for a job."

Axioms and epigrams that endure don't just happen. To go down through the generations they must express in a concise and vivid manner

Harvest Supplies

CANVAS STAPLES, CANVAS RIVETS,

BINDER WHIPS, PUMP OILERS,

MACHINE OIL, BUNDLE FORKS

Combines, Wheatland Disc Plows.

Barbor & Craddock

Residence Phone 40 — Strathmore — Store Phone 50

an obvious truth. The axioms of the busy man and the good workman fill this requirement.

There is a reason why one should patronize the busy man and workman who has a job. The busy man is busy because he has earned a reputation of giving service expeditiously and satisfactorily. The best recommendation a workman can desire is the fact that he is not out.

— Kingston Whig Standard

WHY STRATHMORE DOES NOT REALLY DEVELOP

The location of Strathmore is particularly well adapted for a real growth, situated as it is in the centre of one of the best districts in the Province.

It has the advantage over many localities, that in a dry season, a large portion has the benefit of irrigation, upon which the Canadian Pacific Railway has invested many millions of dollars.

The main trouble seems to be that the younger element of the population is not being held; and with this fact admitted, and it cannot be denied, it would seem wise to try and locate the cause, and make some valuable attempt to remedy the trouble.

The young men and women have no opportunity to learn a trade of any kind, hence must simply plod along selling a days work at any kind of temporary labor that develops from week to week.

The work of this character cannot return satisfactory financial gain, hence the young people are always looking to the larger centers where steady employment is more easily secured, and the wages much more attractive.

Just within a few days, one of our best citizens, who has been a resident for many years, and given very freely of his time to aid anything of a community nature, has announced that he is removing to Ontario.

The question was asked why Ontario, and the answer: "I have three boys, and I want to locate where they will have better advantages, where at least they will have a chance to learn a trade."

An object lesson may be learned from this, and the Mayor and Council and the Board of Trade might well take cognizance, and give their thought attention in endeavoring to develop some plan, that might help in a small measure at least, to change the existing condition.

Councillors Schulte and Quirk have a close association with many of the manufacturing industries, and might be able to induce some of these firms to establish some small plants.

The town of Kitchener, in Ontario, was built up through the establishing of a number of industries, many of which, at their inception, only had four or five employees, but today many of them employ several hundred.

Strathmore will never get ahead unless some direct move is made to interest some of these firms.

SAME OLD "TIGER"

Georges Cheneveau, war premier of France, seems to withstand age's onslaughts successfully. Little difference in his appearance now and ten years ago is noticeable in this recent photo showing him congratulating the former Mlle. Jeanne Roseneau after her marriage to his grandson, Georges (center).

A NEW NASH AGENCY

The announcement is made by Alberta Nash Limited, Calgary, of the appointment of J. A. Danden as agent for the Nash line of automobiles for the Strathmore district. Mr. Danden who is an old-timer in Strathmore, was successful in securing the agency after a careful inspection, keeping in mind the probable requirements of the farmers in the district, and the business men of the town.
Service arrangements have been completed with the Hughes Garage, whereby this garage will be the headquarters for Nash owners.
The Nash line is complete, and prices of the various models range from $1465 to $3495.

"I believe that when this crop is taken off," said Mr. Danden to the Standard, "that the people of the Strathmore district will be in the market for some good automobiles, and, after careful investigation, I am convinced that Nash leads the world in motor car value."

CORN SHOW TO BE HELD IN CALGARY

The Alberta Provincial Corn Show is to be held this year in Calgary on November 17th and 18th. At a recent meeting of the directors of the Corn Growers' Association a prize list totaling over $8000 was drawn up which makes provisions for all the leading varieties and classes of field corn, sweet corn and pop corn.
The most important ten ear classes are yellow flint, white flint, yellow dent, white dent, Northwestern Dent, and Patmore for each of which five teen prizes are offered, with a first prize of twenty dollars.

At last years show the classes which attracted the most attention were those for two ears, one for five ears and one for ten ear varieties. These classes are being continued with a first prize of fifty dollars in each class, and others of twenty, ten and five. There are also classes for sheaves, and those intending to compete in the sheaf classes should save corn at an early date and cure them with the ears and leaves intact.

For boys and girls under seventeen years there are two classes with five prizes in each class, one for ten ears of white flint and one for ten ears of yellow flint. A silver challenger trophy is to be awarded to the owner of the best exhibit in the Junior classes.

The prize list with rules and regulations will be issued shortly and may be had by writing to the secretary-treasurer of the Corn Growers' Association, James Murray, Medicine Hat.

FARMERS' WIVES GET
GENUINE CAMP VACATION

BERKELEY, Calif.—A vacation for farmers' wives, where husbands and children and farm work are left behind, is being provided this summer by the University of California agriculture extension service at Whitaker's Forest, Tulare County, and at Camp Forward, Lassen County.

There is no attempt at instruction in the camps. Housekeepers and cooks are chosen for each day, so that all get an equal chance to rest and enjoy the beauty of the outdoors.
Campfire groups and story-telling provide entertainment in the evening.
Camp Forward was organized last year. It proved so successful that the equipment was augmented this year, and the Whitaker Forest camp added.
